

$99 Business Credit Program

Access Capital Under Your EIN

WHO SHOULD PARTICIPATE?

Entrepreneurs seeking to build business credit and funding for their business REGARDLESS of personal credit scores EVEN if pre-launch or start-up.

The innovative and affordable $99 Business Credit Building Program provides a results-oriented solution to assist entrepreneurs and small business owners in getting business credit for your EIN that is not linked to your SSN.

Get approved even when you can't qualify for a business loan with no cash flow nor collateral requirements.

COST FOR ENROLLING?

A single $99 payment as the grant covers the rest.

The Business Credit Literacy Initiative (BCLI), a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization formed in 2016, is committed to assisting small businesses in accessing capital without the use of personal credit or personal guarantees.

BCLI is a member of the Money Smart Alliance formed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) which is promoted by the United States Small Business Administration (SBA).

BCLI was exclusively selected to develop and administer this grant-subsidized program to address the need of every small business--Access To Capital.
